Universities

Coventry boasts two world renowned universities; Warwick University and Coventry University.

Both attract huge numbers of domestic and international students to the city and are major employers. In addition, both institutions are centres of research, investment and skills.

Warwick

Warwick has around 23,600 full-time students and 1,800 academic and research staff. Warwick consistently ranks in the top ten of all major domestic rankings of British universities and is the only multi-faculty institution aside from Oxford and Cambridge to have never been ranked outside the top ten. Warwick has been ranked as the world's 20th best university based on employer reputation.

Coventry

With more than 27,600 students: 21,525 undergraduates and 6,075 postgraduates Coventry University offers more than 130 undergraduate degrees and 100 postgraduate degrees over its four faculties. The university employs over 1,800 academic staff and is the fourth largest employer in Coventry. Nationally, Coventry is ranked 15th by The Guardian University Guide 2016.

Location & Travel

Fast, straightforward connections to London, Birmingham and beyond. Following the £106m upgrade to the Tollbar roundabout Middlemarch is strategically situated just a short distance from the M6 & M40 and A45. Middlemarch is just south east of Coventry and with excellent transport links, it ensures the working day starts with an easy journey. It is easily accessible by road, rail and air, with a main train station located just over 3 miles away from the business park. Birmingham Airport and International Railway Station are located 22 mins away making Middemarch an extremely accessible location both nationally and Internationally.

By Air

Birmingham Airport serves a large number of European and domestic destinations.
